

HIGHLIGHTS 2016 - 2017

PROTECTION

PROVISION

The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child underpins all of our work.

100% of monitoring report recommendations accepted by CYF / Oranga Tamariki of Oranga Tamariki sites and residences experiencing our monitoring services were satisfied or very satisfied

2 thematic reviews conducted across ten Oranga Tamariki care and protection and youth justice sites

78 presentations given by the Commissioner on a range of children's issues

SIX of the nine Oranga Tamariki secure residences visited

Published the 2017 State of Care (Residences) report

132 children and young people's voices directly informed our monitoring findings and recommendations

23 presentations given by staff on being child-centred to a range of organisations

PARTICIPATION

PROMOTION

These four themes represent the essence of the Convention.

8 child-focused policy submissions made to Select Committees

Released the 4th annual

Child Poverty Monitor

5th

Represented NZ children at the 5th periodic review of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child in Geneva

2360 children and young people's views gathered via our child and youth voices work

4YOUth

Developed 4YOUth resources on our website to provide information for children and young people of our stakeholders agree that the Office's advocacy activities contributed to improving the wellbeing of children

96%

Responded to 511

callers on the Child Rights Advice Line

100%

of our performance measures achieved as set out in our Statement of Performance Expectations

Provided formal advice on the Oranga Tamariki transformation process and service design, through formal membership of the Investing in Children Cross-Agency Deputy Chief Executives Working Group and the Tier Three Cross-Agency Advisory Group